

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR DIRECTORS

1. PREAMBLE

The Code of Conduct for Directors Policy (“the Code”) has been formulated to establish and maintain the highest standards of integrity, ethics, transparency, and accountability in the conduct of the Company’s business. The Directors of the Company play a significant role in ensuring good corporate governance and protecting the interests of shareholders, employees, customers, investors, and other stakeholders.

This Code provides guidance to the Directors in carrying out their duties and responsibilities in a fair, honest, and ethical manner while ensuring compliance with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and internal policies of the Company. The purpose of this Code is to promote responsible decision-making, maintain public confidence in the Company, and uphold the reputation and values of the organization.

2. APPLICABILITY

This Policy shall apply to all members of the Board of Directors of the Company, including:

- ❖ Executive Directors
- ❖ Non-Executive Directors
- ❖ Independent Directors
- ❖ Additional Directors and Nominee Directors, if any

Every Director shall acknowledge and comply with the provisions of this Code at all times during their association with the Company. The Directors are expected to conduct themselves in a professional, ethical, and lawful manner while discharging their duties and responsibilities.

3. OBJECTIVES

The primary objectives of this Code are as follows:

- To promote ethical conduct and integrity in all business activities of the Company.
- To ensure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and governance standards.
- To define standards of professional behaviour expected from Directors.
