Subject: Appointment as Additional Director u/s 161 of the Companies Act, 2013

Dear Sir, I am pleased to confirm that the board of directors of the Company has appointed you as an Additional Director on the Board of Directors of the Company to hold office up to the date of the next Annual General Meeting of the Company Under Section 161 and other applicable provisions (including any modification or re-enactment thereof), if any, of the Companies Act, 2013.

Role of the Board

The board's role is to effectively represent and promote the interests of shareholders to add long-term value to the Company's shares. Having regard to its role, the board directs and supervises the management of the business and affairs of the Company including, in particular: Ensuring that the Company's goals are established and those strategies are in place for achieving them; establishing policies for strengthening the performance of the Company including ensuring that management is proactively seeking to build the business through innovation, initiative, technology, new products and the development of its business capital; Monitoring the performance of management; Deciding on whatever steps are necessary to protect the Company's financial position and the ability to meet its debts and other obligations when they fall due, and ensuring that such steps are taken; Ensuring that the Company's financial statements are true and fair and otherwise confirm with law; Ensuring that the Company adheres to high standards of ethics and corporate behaviour; and Ensuring that the Company has appropriate risk management/regulatory compliance policies in place. All directors are expected to take decisions objectively in the interests of the Company. The board as a whole is collectively responsible for the success of the Company. All directors, whether non-executive or executive, have the same general legal responsibilities.

Timing and location of board meeting, and time commitment

The board normally holds meetings as the occasion requires. Meetings usually take place at the Company's registered office in 87 A, First Floor, Sathy Road, Muniappan Kovil Street, Ganapathy, Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu, India, 641006.. The duration of each meeting typically runs to half a day. In addition to routine board meetings, you should allow time for preparatory work and travel, and ensure that you are in a position to make the necessary overall time commitment.
