

Promoter Profile – K.V. Karthik, B.E, M.S

K.V. Karthik is the Managing Director and Promoter of Deccan Industries, a leading Indian manufacturer of water pumps ranging from 0.37 kW to 650 kW (0.5 HP to 900 HP), marketed under the brands Deccan and Karvel. Founded in 1981 by his father, Er. K.K. Veluchamy, the company has grown significantly under Mr. Karthik's stewardship, expanding into EPC contracting and successfully executing several large water supply and sewage infrastructure projects.

As President of the Indian Pump Manufacturers Association (IPMA), Mr. Karthik is a key voice for the Indian pump industry, with a vision to build it into a ₹1 lakh crore sector. He is a strong proponent of import substitution and indigenization of high-value pumps for critical applications in defense, energy, and infrastructure, aligning with the Government of India's Make in India mission.

Mr. Karthik holds several influential positions across trade and technical bodies, including:

- Honorary Secretary, Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Coimbatore
- Technical Committee Member, BIS & BEE – contributing to national pump and motor standards and energy-efficiency labeling programs
- Chairman, Centre of Excellence for Pumps at Si'Tarc – spearheading R&D, including India's first BLDC submersible motor and advanced slurry pump technology in collaboration with IITs and IISc

He has previously served as President of COINDIA and President of SIEMA, further reinforcing his leadership within the manufacturing ecosystem.
